C) _____ I give permission for my bags, possessions, vehicle and locker to be searched for contraband, illegal drugs, alcohol or walk-on paint.

D) _____ All paint, which is used on the playing field in all games, must be purchased at GOPHER HILL PAINTBALL INC.

No exceptions. No walk-on paint will be permitted. I understand that violators will be asked to leave the field with no refund offered for the game/day rentals.

E) _____ I will play paintball only in accordance with the safety instructions, rules and guidelines that I hereby acknowledge as having read and understood.

Safety Guidelines:

- Mask/goggles are to be worn AT ALL TIMES wherever the guns may be fired, on the field, the firing range, before, during and after games. They may never be removed in these areas for any reason. Violation will result in game suspension for the first offence, and day expulsion for the second offence.
- Barrel plugs must be in gun barrel at all times when not on the playing field, or firing range.
- If an emergency situation arises (i.e.: goggles fall off, serious injury, etc) yell, "FREEZE". Each player who hears this will in turn yell, "FREEZE" and so on. All play will immediately stop. No one will move while the FREEZE rule is in effect and there will be no communication between players. The FREEZE will continue until the referee restarts the game.
- Always wear protective eyewear when using or around persons with air guns. Never point an air gun at any person not wearing protective eyewear. Never remove protective eyewear when playing or physically in the playing area. NO AREA IS TOTALLY SAFE.
- No full-auto paintball markers. Max velocity is 280 fps for .68
- Privately owned guns must be chronographed before being allowed on the playing field. Any violation results in confiscation of the gun. Any show of ill intent on the player's part will result in his/her expulsion from the field.
- Consumption of alcohol or drugs means instant expulsion from the game.
